The information requested on this document is for the sole use of the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission (AGLC) in determining the eligibility of an individual, as per Casino Terms and Conditions and Operating Guidelines established by the AGLC.

No individual is eligible to work in a casino if charged or convicted, within the last five years, of a criminal offence related to narcotics, or to acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to, offences involving fraud, currency, or gaming and betting or those against the rights of property (such as theft, robbery, forgery), or fire arms and offensive weapons, or an indictable offence for an act of violence against a person. If five years after conviction, an individual is still under sentence for such an offence, registration shall not be approved until completion of sentence. AGLC may contact police for relevant information about the applicant. If an individual has received a pardon under provisions of the Criminal Records Act, this policy will not apply.

Paid staff of the licensed organization can work, provided:

a. They are members of the organization as defined by their bylaws;
b. They volunteer their services outside normal working hours;
c. They do not fill the following positions: General Manager, Alternate General Manager, Banker, Count Room Supervisor, Cashier;
d. No individual shall work more than one position during the licence period of the casino;
e. All personnel shall be eighteen (18) years of age or older.

I certify that the information in this application and any attachments are true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that any false statement made in this application and any attachments may disqualify me from working at a casino.

I hereby consent to and authorize the AGLC to undertake a criminal record check, with any police agency, to determine my eligibility to be involved in gaming facilities, in accordance with the Commission policies. An applicant may also be required to obtain and provide a criminal record check from a police agency.
